RE: Hiring - Volunteer Congregational Support Ministers

Included in the Greater Pacific NW US Mission Center proposal is the hope of hiring five (5) Volunteer Congregational Support Ministers. These are mission center staff positions, supervised by the Mission Center President, whose focus is to provide ongoing congregational ministry to two or three congregations and their pastors. Compensation is limited to reimbursement for expenses, only.

A Volunteer Congregational Support Minister (VCSM) would be expected to preach, teach and model the mission and message of Jesus Christ. They would be available to assist pastors and congregations with specialized skills, ministries and congregational goal achievement, along with encouraging and assisting congregations to create networks or clusters to provide fellowship and support for ongoing congregational ministries. VCSMs would participate in mission center staff meetings, trainings and gatherings as well as periodic mission center assignments.

Applicants may send a letter of interest, along with a resume of ministerial experience, by October 1, 2003 to: Barbara Borkowski, Seattle Stake President, at 14628 156th Ave SE, Renton, WA 98059.
