

NEW MISSION CENTER HIRE

STEVE POMEROY

Steve Pomeroy has been appointed as the Interim Mission Center Financial Officer (MCFO) for our Mission Center. Steve's appointment will begin July 1, 2016 and continue through December 31, 2017. In the fall, Mission Center Conference delegates will have the opportunity to sustain this appointment.

Steve brings to this appointment an excellent background for the position, as well as a strong work ethic, an excellent relationship with the membership, and experience with staff and congregational leaders. Steve's ministry in this role will richly bless the mission center.

Steve is a life-long member of Community of Christ. He was previously employed by the GPNW Mission Center as Pastor Support Minister and a Congregational Support Minister (2008-2015). He also previously served for more than 16 years as Pastor of Renton Congregation. Other areas of church service have included the Mission Center Council, the former Seattle Stake High Council, the Presidency of the Seattle Stake Elders' Quorum, the Mission Center Design Team, the Renton Financial Oversight Committee, and a variety of other local planning and advisory committees. Steve continues to serve the church in self-supporting roles as chair of the mission center's Bold Moves Grants Committee and as a Congregational Support Minister.

Steve graduated from the University of Arizona with a bachelor's degree in education and received a master's degree in business administration from the University of Puget Sound. After eleven years of teaching for Milwaukee (WI) Public Schools, Steve moved to the Seattle area and worked for more than 30 years as the Business Manager of a consulting engineering firm before accepting church employment.

Steve will return to his priesthood calling of High Priest while serving as MCFO. He and his wife, Mary Ann, reside in Bellevue.

Steve Pomeroy, spomeroy@cofchrist-gpnw.org

NEW MISSION CENTER HIRE

STEVE POMEROY

Steve Pomeroy has been appointed as the Interim Mission Center Financial Officer (MCFO) for our Mission Center. Steve's appointment will begin July 1, 2016 and continue through December 31, 2017. In the fall, Mission Center Conference delegates will have the opportunity to sustain this appointment.

Steve brings to this appointment an excellent background for the position, as well as a strong work ethic, an excellent relationship with the membership, and experience with staff and congregational leaders. Steve's ministry in this role will richly bless the mission center.

Steve is a life-long member of Community of Christ. He was previously employed by the GPNW Mission Center as Pastor Support Minister and a Congregational Support Minister (2008-2015). He also previously served for more than 16 years as Pastor of Renton Congregation. Other areas of church service have included the Mission Center Council, the former Seattle Stake High Council, the Presidency of the Seattle Stake Elders' Quorum, the Mission Center Design Team, the Renton Financial Oversight Committee, and a variety of other local planning and advisory committees. Steve continues to serve the church in self-supporting roles as chair of the mission center's Bold Moves Grants Committee and as a Congregational Support Minister.

Steve graduated from the University of Arizona with a bachelor's degree in education and received a master's degree in business administration from the University of Puget Sound. After eleven years of teaching for Milwaukee (WI) Public Schools, Steve moved to the Seattle area and worked for more than 30 years as the Business Manager of a consulting engineering firm before accepting church employment.

Steve will return to his priesthood calling of High Priest while serving as MCFO. He and his wife, Mary Ann, reside in Bellevue.

Steve Pomeroy, spomeroy@cofchrist-gpnw.org